

Central PDX Cultural Partners

Within easy access of downtown, Portland has a rich array of intimate cultural and historical institutions. We invite you to explore the Architectural Heritage Center, Japanese American Museum of Oregon, Lan Su Chinese Garden, Oregon Jewish Museum and Center for Holocaust Education, and Portland Chinatown Museum.

Become a member at any of the partner institutions and receive a Central PDX Cultural Pass for four to visit all five partners.

Central PDX Cultural Partners

Oregon Jewish Museum and Center for Holocaust Education

724 NW Davis St. | ojmche.org

OJMCHCE exhibitions and programs explore Jewish contributions to world culture and ideas, issues of identity, and the forces of prejudice and discrimination. The Museum focuses on the legacy of the Jewish experience in Oregon, the universal lessons of the Holocaust, and opportunities for intercultural conversation.

Lan Su Chinese Garden

239 NW Everett St. | lansugarden.org

Lan Su Chinese Garden is a Portland treasure and a result of a collaboration between Portland and its sister city, Suzhou, China. More than just a beautiful garden, Lan Su is a creative wonder based on a 2,000-year-old Chinese tradition that melds art, architecture, and nature in harmony.

Portland Chinatown Museum

127 NW Third Ave. | portlandchinatownmuseum.org

The Portland Chinatown Museum (PCM) is Oregon's first museum about Chinese American history, art, and culture. Their mission is to collect, preserve and share the stories, oral histories and artifacts of Portland's Chinatown as a catalyst for exploring and interpreting the past, present, and future of Chinatown.

Japanese American Museum of Oregon

411 NW Flanders St. | oregonnikkei.org

The Japanese American Museum of Oregon is a museum in Portland's former Japantown, charged with the preservation and sharing of the history and culture of Japanese Americans in the Pacific Northwest. The museum features a redesigned permanent exhibit, a research library, and a gallery of rotating exhibits.

Architectural Heritage Center

701 SE Grand Ave. | visitahc.org

As the city grows and changes, the Architectural Heritage Center works to connect people and place, the past and the future. Each year we organize public programs, walking tours, and gallery exhibitions on a wide variety of topics related to Portland's built environment.
